In 1951, the material and mechanical basis of agriculture was considerably strengthened, which made it possible to raise the mechanization level of agricultural work. MTS completed 16 percent more agricultural work in kolkhozes than in 1950. Combines harvested 11 percent more grain crops than in 1950.

In 1951, the sown area of industrial crops in the republic increased 10 percent in comparison with 1950, including 15 percent for cotton.

Much work was done in kolkhozes and sovkhozes for conversion to a new irrigation system. The plan for reconstruction of the irrigation network in 1951 was exceeded.

Kolkhozes and sovkhozes of the Kirgiz SSR fulfilled the state grain procurement plan, and the plans for procurement of flax seed, grapes, silk cocoons, and raw leather.

In 1951, Soviet trade continued to develop. The new reduction of state retail prices on food and consumers' goods effective 1 March 1951, the fourth after abolition of the card system, increased the sale of goods by state and cooperative trade. In 1951, the volume of retail commodity turnover was above that of 1950.

The 1951 plan for retail commodity turnover in state and cooperative trade of the Kirgiz SSR was fulfilled 100.2 percent, including 99.2 percent for the retail trade network, and 106 percent for public eating enterprises.

Individual ministries and departments fulfilled the 1951 plan for retail trade turnover as follows (in percent):
